Elevated high within the resort, this extraordinary villa boasts panoramic views of both the tranquil Mar Menor and the sparkling Mediterranean Sea, creating an unparalleled living experience. Villa Aurora is designed to impress at every turn, from its cutting-edge architecture to its exquisite interior decor. It offers a seamless blend of indoor and outdoor living, inviting you to bask in the glory of the surrounding vistas from every corner of the property. This villa is not just a residence—it's a sanctuary, a retreat where nature, design, and luxury come together to form a perfect haven.

A Majestic Welcome: Entering a World of Spectacular Views From the moment you arrive at Villa Aurora, you're greeted with a sense of grandeur. The entrance itself is a visual masterpiece, where the carefully landscaped gardens and the glistening water features immediately capture your attention. As you step through the villa's doors, you're met with floor-to-ceiling glass that frames the magnificent natural surroundings, creating a perfect picture of the Mar Menor, Mediterranean Sea, and the rolling hills of Cartagena. This is more than just a villa—it's a world of its own, where every view is a masterpiece of natural beauty and architectural brilliance. The outdoor areas are no exception. The villa's terraces are designed with floating water tiles that seem to hover above the ground, leading to a stunning lagoon-style pool that shimmers under the Mediterranean sun. Surrounding the pool are multiple outdoor dining and lounge areas, offering a variety of settings for both intimate relaxation and large-scale entertaining. Whether you're hosting an alfresco dinner or enjoying a quiet evening watching the sunset, Villa Aurora offers endless opportunities for outdoor indulgence.

The Heart of the Home: A Chef's Dream Kitchen and Dining Experience At the very core of Villa Aurora is its kitchen, a space that embodies luxury, innovation, and functionality. Designed for both gourmet chefs and passionate home cooks, this kitchen is equipped with the latest top-of-the-line Miele appliances, ensuring that every culinary experience is a delight. The double fridges, dual ovens—one functioning as a steam oven and the other as a microwave—and the integrated coffee maker provide all the tools needed for a seamless cooking experience. The design is as practical as it is stunning. Instead of overhead storage, which could obstruct the views, the kitchen features a 4.5-meter double-sided island that offers abundant storage without compromising on aesthetics. This design choice ensures uninterrupted sightlines to the villa's breathtaking surroundings, allowing the natural beauty outside to become part of the interior's ambiance. Whether you're preparing a casual breakfast or a five-course meal, every moment spent in this kitchen feels like a luxurious culinary journey.

The Primary Suite: A Personal Retreat of Defined Luxury Villa Aurora's primary suite is nothing short of extraordinary. Spanning an impressive 70 square meters, this luxurious retreat offers everything you need for ultimate relaxation and rejuvenation. As you step into this space, you're immediately drawn to the sweeping views, visible through floor-to-ceiling windows that open onto a private terrace. The terrace is the perfect spot for enjoying a quiet morning coffee or an evening glass of wine, all while soaking in the stunning vistas of the La Manga Club's West Course and the historic spa building. The suite's bathroom is equally indulgent, designed as a personal spa. It features an expansive double shower, dual sinks with ample counter space, and a freestanding soaking tub positioned to offer panoramic views of the surrounding landscape. Imagine sinking into a bubble-filled bath, your favorite drink in hand, while the serene beauty of the Mar Menor unfolds before you—this is the epitome of luxury living.
